WAVE RUST OPTICS

Ø 98 x 57 cm

The WAVE is a unique looking firepit, which also offers a lot for functionality. The curved shapes in combination with the oval fire opening makes it look unique from any angle. The stable, square base also draws a beautiful, wavy profile on the hemisphere. Despite the design elements, functionality is not neglected.

The overall package is rounded off with the large stainless-steel plate for easy food preparation, the integrated fire basket for easy cleaning and a device for the optional, height-adjustable and swiveling grill grate.

Unique design

Large stainless steel plate (5 mm thickness)

Air-flushed fire pan for minimized smoke development

Large ash container for easy cleaning

Integrated device for grill grate and other accessories

TRIA BLACK & RUST OPTICS

Ø 98 x 53 cm

TRIA - a garden fire in a class of its own - impresses with its minimalism and restrained elegance. The name gives away the unique shape of the fire opening - an innovative three-plate design with sail-shaped stainless steel plates.

What at first glance seems like a decorative design feature has functional reasons. Three simple feet complete the design and guarantee stability on any surface.
